

“

Hospice Taranaki
provides palliative care support free of charge to all patients
and their whanau

”

*The Team pictured above:
Stacey Marshall, Vanessa Philp, Mark Wester,
Jane Woollard, Annemarie Molloy, Jackie Price*

Te Rangimarie Hospice
5 David Street, Westown, New Plymouth

Phone 06 753 7830
www.hospicetaranaki.org.nz

P032 July 2020

Support Services

Hospice Taranaki

Support Services

Hospice Taranaki provides a range of support services FREE of charge to Hospice patients, their families/whanau and significant others.

What support services are available?

- Counselling
 - Carers' Programme
 - Bereavement Support Group
 - Social Work
 - Spiritual Care and Advice
 - Memorial Services
 - Arts Therapy
 - Biography Service
 - Bereavement Support
-

Stacey Marshall - Manager Registered Arts Therapist

The arts therapies are a good option for when there are no words or when words are not enough.

Further information about arts therapy can be found at www.anzacata.org

Stacey is responsible for ensuring appropriate support is provided for Hospice patients, families/whanau, children and significant others as required.

Stacey works with children, patients, family/whanau members, and those who are bereaved.

Stacey is available Monday to Thursday.

Phone 06 753 7830 Extn 8669
stacey.marshall@hospicetaranaki.org.nz

Biography Service

Biography Volunteers are available to write your life story. For further information contact Stacey.

Jane Woollard Counsellor

Counselling is the process of helping and supporting a person to resolve personal, social, or psychological challenges and difficulties.

Jane provides individual counselling for Hospice patients, family members, and those who are bereaved. Jane also facilitates the Bereavement Support Group hosted throughout the year.

Jane can be contacted on Thursdays and Fridays.

Phone 06 753 7830 Extn 8669
jane.woollard@hospicetaranaki.org.nz

Annemarie Molloy Spiritual Care Advisor

Spiritual care seeks to help people discover hope, resilience, inner strength and peace in times of illness, transition and loss. It acknowledges the value and uniqueness of each person and responds compassionately to the challenges and needs of individuals with a life limiting illness.

Spirituality is the aspect of our humanity that refers to the way we seek and express meaning and purpose, the way we experience our connectedness to ourselves, others, the sacred, nature, creativity and to the moment.

Further information about spirituality can be found at: www.spiritualityandwellbeing.co.nz/definitions

Annemarie cares for the emotional and spiritual needs of patients and family/whanau members largely in Te Rangimarie Hospice in-patient unit and facilitates two memorial services in New Plymouth a year.

Annemarie is available Wednesday and half days on Monday and Friday.

Phone 06 753 7830 Extn 8672
annemarie.molloy@hospicetaranaki.org.nz

Vanessa Philp Counsellor

Vanessa offers individual counselling to residents in Aged Care Facilities, their families/whanau and carers based on identified need, primarily focused in North Taranaki.

Vanessa liaises with our Aged Care Clinical Nurse Specialist regarding support for Central and South Taranaki residents in Aged Care Facilities and working with appropriate referrals in these areas.

Vanessa also facilitates counselling support, mediation, debriefing and education for staff in Aged Care Facilities where required.

Vanessa can be contacted Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

Phone 06 753 7830 Extn 8641
vanessa.philp@hospicetaranaki.org.nz

Jackie Price & Mark Wester Social Workers

Social workers provide care, advice and support to people with personal or social problems and help with community and social issues. Jackie & Mark complete social assessments which assist the wider Hospice team to provide the best possible support to patients and their families/whanau.

Jackie & Mark's role involves advocacy, providing information and referrals to other agencies as required. They can provide information and assistance with a variety of resources including: Meals on Wheels, Medical Alarms, Mobility Parking, Enduring Power of Attorneys, Wills, Rest Home placements, Work and Income entitlements including Funeral Grants.

They also assist with discharge planning within our hospice inpatient unit (IPU) and complete home visits to community patients.

Jackie is available Monday to Thursday
Mark is available Friday only.

Phone 06 753 7830 Extn 8655
jackie.price@hospicetaranaki.org.nz or 027 262 6952
mark.wester@hospicetaranaki.org.nz or 027 406 0532