

Palliative Care Lecture Series 2017

DATE/TIME	PRESENTATION	PRESENTERS
7.30-8.30am
LECTURE 1 4 February 2017	The Palliative Approach Toolkit and Nurse Practitioners in aged care: an Australian perspective	Peter Jenkin Nurse Practitioner (Palliative Care), Resthaven Incorporated
LECTURE 2 2 March 2017	Use of cannabinoids in symptom management	Martin Woodbridge Consultant, Woodbridge Research: Bridging the Knowledge Gap
LECTURE 3 6 April 2017	Update on dementia	Speaker to be confirmed
LECTURE 4 4 May 2017	Palliative approaches to the management of constipation - evidence and clinical implications for practice	Professor Philip Larkin Professor of Clinical Nursing (Palliative Care), University College Dublin School of Nursing, Midwifery and Health Systems and Our Lady's Hospice and Care Services, Dublin
LECTURE 5 1 June 2017	Dying and growing old in a foreign land – an Asian nurse migrant's perspective	Cat Chiu Registered Nurse, Community Palliative Care Team, Mercy Hospice Auckland -Te Korowai Atawhai
LECTURE 6 6 July 2017	Principles and Guidance for the Last Days of Life: Te Ara Whakapiri The next steps	Dr Kate Grundy Palliative Medicine Physician and Clinical Director, Canterbury Integrated Palliative Care Services Helen Sawyer Palliative Care Clinical Nurse Specialist, Southern DHB (Otago)
LECTURE 7 3 August 2017	Euthanasia	Dr Martin Woods Senior Lecturer, Graduate School of Nursing, Midwifery and Health and Research Fellow, Mary Potter Hospice, Wellington
LECTURE 8 7 September 2017	Neurologically based difficult behaviours and possible management	Dr.Oleg Kiriaev Palliative Medicine Specialist, Totara Hospice South Auckland and Senior Medical Officer, Mental Health Services for Older People, Auckland
LECTURE 9 5 October 2017	Dignity	Speaker to be confirmed
LECTURE 10 2 November 2017	"Still a couple?" A study of sexuality and intimacy concerns in residential care from the perspectives of residents' partners and care staff	Clare Greensmith Registered Psychotherapist and Registered Occupational Therapist
LECTURE 11 7 December 2017	Chronic respiratory disease	Speaker to be confirmed